"Alea iacta est" (The die is cast)
Julius Caesar in 49 BCE after crossing the Rubicon

"You got to roll me and call me the tumblin' dice"
Rolling Stones in 1972 CE, album 'Exile on Main St.'

At the suggestion of our former CCE colleague Peter de Smet, we provide below the net of the cube shown on the cover. Cutting it out, you can glue it together and view it from different angles ...

The map on the cube shows the 5-th percentile of the acidity  $CL_{\max}S$ , computed for the northern Northern Hemisphere in Reinds et al. (2015).
